Divine Compassion Conference III

Women: Healing, Authority and Ministry in the Orthodox Spiritual Tradition to be held at the

Archbishop Iakovos Library and Learning Resource Center

at

Hellenic College Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology

keynote address by

Dr. Helen Creticos-Theodoropoulos

Adjunct Professor of Theology at St. Savas Seminary, Libertyville, Illinois response to keynote by

Dr. Evangelia Amiridou

Associate Professor of Church History, Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki

Presenters explore vital themes from Orthodox Christian spiritual tradition as witnessed through lives of women saints, engaging:

Divine Compassion, Women and...

Healing: Suffering, forgiveness and healing take place sometimes under small and other times through extreme circumstances. How does the witness of the women saints impact us today regarding this?

Authority: "Fallen" human life transmits its own assumptions regarding authority and power. What may the witness of women saints have to offer us today concerning this?

Ministry: Presenters examine the lives of saints who rejected conventional rewards and instead, offer their lives in various ways as living sacrifice to God. What does this say to us?

Divine Compassion and Human Trafficking Seminar: Join us for a session engaging Orthodox Christian teaching as a foundation to help build a contemporary, more complete and cohesive pan-Orthodox approach and response to this devastating human crisis.
